Veronica Mars is an iconic character who I have been watching since I was in middle school. No one could top Kristen Bell in the title role of a sarcastic teen PI. The New York Times even called it one of the 20 best Drama TV shows since the Sopranos. Plot, acting, and directing are all peak in this universe. It's my classic show I can always turn to, everybody's got one right?

The Ghost Army was a secret group of the army during WWII that was tasked with creating grand illusions to trick the enemy.

Ellsworth Kelly was a part of the Ghost Army along with other artists who were drafted.

Kelly is one of my favorite artists. He learned a lot about shapes working with camouflage.
